   b. Thank You Letters to Board & Staff from AJGA Participants
   c. AJGA Estimates Local Economic Impact between $200,000 to $209,000
2. 07-06-16 Letter of Support for Eastgate COG Ohio Environmental Education Fund Grant Application
   a. Proposed Yellow Creek Park Watershed Interpretive Signage
3. New Park Planner: Andrew Steingass

Commissioners Comments:

- Lee Frey – spoke regarding water quality, and noted that it is not mentioned in the 2012 Strategic Plan. He understands that it is a difficult situation, there is no easy fix, and will take a lot of work. He also thanked Aaron for posting the MetroParks’ mission statement on the wall in McMahon Hall. He thanked Tom for his work on the motions, and encouraged the public to join the committees.

- Tom Shipka – appreciates the Board’s willingness to get started on his motions. He asked the severe critics to please give the path that has begun tonight some time to settle in, to tone it down a little, and to show interest in serving on one of the committees.

- Germaine Bennett – thanked Tom for his hard work

- Bob Durick – thanked Tom for his hard work, and encouraged the public to join one of the committees.

- John Ragan – thanked the staff, the Park looks great, and everyone is doing a good job.

Public Comments:

- Chris Peyko – spoke regarding the lawsuit filed recently. He applauded the recommendations made by Tom Shipka this evening. Questioned staffing, and algae on the lakes.

- Judy Peyko – announced to the public to see her or Chris regarding the lawsuit. She indicated that she appreciated Mr. Frey and Mr. Shipka. She questioned funds used from the Mill Creek MetroParks Foundation to attend a banquet. Aaron replied that it was to honor one of our Head Golf Pro’s Athena Award. She questioned a free room rental at the Davis Center. Aaron replied regarding the free room rental for the Regional Chamber of Commerce, that we are a member of, that they asked us to host that month’s meeting, with ODNR as the speaker and that the MetroParks sends requests for 3rd party grants to ODNR.

- Elsie Dursi – compliments to Tom and the board regarding changes, working together, and including the public. She expressed concern that we have more park planners than naturalists; she thinks the community feels that naturalists are more important; would like to see that balance is restored. She asked to Board to consider hiring Ellen Speicher back.

- Chance Metz – spoke regarding weeds and the smaller parking lot at the Lily Pond. He also spoke regarding mulch, weeds, and empty flower beds at the Gardens.

- Linda Boardsen – Expressed that quality environmental education is important in the Park; referred to a book regarding nature deficit disorder. She thanked the Board.

- Paul Hagman – Spoke as President of the Friends of Fellows Riverside Gardens organization. He thanked the Board, and expressed that the Gardens is important, and that they reaffirm their commitment and will continue the same level of support. He announced the Friends of Fellows Riverside Gardens volunteer cleanup day, and he asked that the community, staff, supporters, and critics attend the cleanup.
• Lynn Anderson – Thanked Germaine, Lee, and Tom. She spoke regarding fracking, laws, ODNR meeting, and boring under Hitchcock Woods and bike path. Asked that the bike path phase III project not continue. She asked for the resignations of Bob Durick, John Ragan, and Aaron Young. She mentioned the recent heavy rainfall.

• Deby Clark – thanked current employees of Mill Creek MetroParks, and of Fellows Riverside Gardens for all that they do to keep everything beautiful.

• Pam Garver – commended the Board on the motions this evening. She feels the park should make it friendly for volunteers. She questioned positions terminated, and new staff hired. She mentioned that there was a theft at a wedding recently at the Gardens.

• Bill Adams – listed wages in various departments, compared to naturalist wages. He is tired of the lack of naturalists, the direction the park is going, and that the Board did not do their job.

John Ragan announced that the next Regular Board Meeting will be held on Monday, August 8, 2016, at 6 p.m. at the MetroParks Farm.

There being no further business, Germaine Bennett moved to adjourn the meeting. Lee Frey seconded the motion, and the vote taken resulted as follows:

  Voting Aye: Bennett, Durick, Frey, Ragan, Shipka
  Voting Nay: None

The meeting adjourned at 7:42 p.m.
